LIFE isn’t about waiting for the storm to pass. It’s about learning to DANCE in the rain.

The free bird leaps on the back of the wind and floats downstream till the current ends and dips its wings in the orange sun rays and swims to claim the sky. But a bird that stalks drags his narrow cage ever slowly sees through his bars of rage his wings are clipped and his feet are tied so he opens his throat to sing. The caged bird sings with a fearful trill of things unknown but longed for still and his tune is heard on the distant hill for the caged bird sings of freedom. The free bird thinks of another breeze and the trade winds soft through the sighing trees and the fat worms waiting on a dew-drenched lawn and he swears the sky is his own. But a caged bird stands in the grave of dreams his shadow chants on a nightmare screen his wings are clipped and his feet are tied as he opens his throat to sing. The caged bird sings with a fearful trill of things unknown but longed for still and his tune is heard on the distant hill for the caged bird sings of freedom.
